structions of the law ever heard of in any civilized country and is a clear violation of the State and Federal Constitutions.

The mere fact that any Court is catering to the farmer vote is hardly sufficient legal ground for our laws to be prostituted to the uses and abuses of the tobacco growers, as a class, and a favorite class at that. Class legislation is always vicious and impudently unconstitutional, and it is an insult, born of the arbitrary power of biased Courts, for the people to have to submit to it. There is a line beyond which "State's rights" cannot go, and class legislation by States is at the top of the list. Kentucky has been almost entirely built up by outside capital, and now for the Legislature and the Courts to begin to stand in with the tobacco grower simply to curry favor at the ballot-box is, to say the least, the last "damnable straw" which bows the camel's back, and the camel in this instance is the whole people of old Kentucky. A dispatch from Frankfort, bearing on the decision referred to, says:

"It is announced that the effect of the decision will be that the tobacco growers and growers of other farm products in the State can pool their crops in order to ob-

Where is this thing going to stop, if the farmers are backed by partisan State Courts in their inordinate desire to inflate the prices of their products? Has the manufacturer and the consumer no voice in this matter? And has consumer no voice in this matter? ANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new her to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time-after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs, It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. ### GAS COMPRESSOR

Catlettsburg Tribune.

One of the largest concerns located in this section for a long time is to be installed at South Kenova in the near future, one which will result in the distribution of nearly $200-000 during the process of construction. The Columbia Gas and Oil Company, which seems to have a way of doing nothing by halves, will establish a mammoth gas compressor plant at the above named location. The plant will be on the East bank of the Big Sandy river, a short distance South of the C. and O. Railroad Bridge.

It is to have a registered pressure capacity of 4,000 pounds, while there will be two electrically driven pumps whose capacity will be 6,500 gallons per minute. Briefly, it will be one of the most costly plants along the reach between the Big Sandy and Guyan rivers.

Mr. Biddelson is the engineer who is to superintend the construction work and his plans and specifications are complete. The work will begin in a few days and it is the intention to have it completed by the time that the Company's big main will be connected up with

It is claimed that it will be the biggest plant of its kind in the entire country.

Ripley Bee.

Mes. Jane Porter Chapman, widow of the late John C. Chapman, died Thursday of last week at her home at South Ripley, from paralysis, aged nearly 82

The interment was in Maplewood Cemetery

Her son, Charles Howard of Albert Lea, Minn, was unable to attend the funeral on account of absence from home and railroad blockades, and her sister, Mrs. Margaret Robertson of Des Moines, Iowa, was also prevented by illness from attending.

Jane S. Porter was the daughter of Charles and Isabella Porter, pioneer citizens of Ripley, and was born here March 25th, 1827.

She was married April 25th, 1863, to Captain James Howard of South Ripley, who died February 12th, 1872, leaving her a widow with one son, Charles, who survives her. She was again married March 9th, 1893, to John C. Chapman of Brown county, Ohio, who died December 22d, 1907. During their declining years they were well cared for by her step-son, James T. Howard, and his wife.

Mrs. Chapman was a life-long member of the Presbyterian Church of Ripley. She possessed high intelligence and much cultivation, and was fond of reading and books. In her disposition she was kindly and amiable, fond of her friends and society, and very hospitable. She was a refined, Christian lady, who lived a sweet and beautiful life, and will be long and lovingly remembered by all who knew

Mrs. Della Means, 328 East Front street,

"About seved years ago kidney trouble made its appearance in my case, the first symptom being a sharp pain through my kidneys, accompanied by a bearing-down feeling across my hips and loins. Dull, miserable headaches soon began to bother me, and I often became so dizzy that if I did not catch hold of something I would have fallen. I continued to grow worse, until I was often confined to my bed for a week at a time. No remedy I used helped me, and I was in a bad way. Dropsical swellings appeared, and there was an almost complete retention of the kidney secretions. My body also bloated, and it would be impossible to describe the misery I endured. I had about despaired of ever being cured, when I read of a person who had been freed of a similar trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills. Deciding to try them, I procured a supply at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and I obtained so much relief from the first box that I continued taking the remedy until entirely cured. I have no hesitation in saying that Doan's Kidney Pills saved my life."
